LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM RULES AND ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

Rule 76.

ALL APPLICATIONS for Private Bills, properly the subject of legislation by the Legislative Assembly of British Columbia, within the purview of the "British North America Act, 1867"—whether for the erection of a Bridge, the making of a Railway, Tramway, Turnpike Road, Telegraph or Telephone Line; the construction or improvement of a Harbour, Canal, Lock, Dam, Slide, or other like work; the granting of a right of Ferry; the incorporation of any particular trade or calling, or of any Joint-stock Company; or otherwise for granting to any individual or individuals any exclusive or peculiar rights or privileges whatever, or for doing any matter or thing which in its operation would affect the rights or property of other parties, or relate to any particular class of the community, or for making any amendment of a like nature to any former Act—shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant. Such notice shall be published in the British Columbia Gazette and in one daily and one weekly newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. When the proposed Private Bill is of a local nature, the notice shall be furthermore published in some newspaper in the electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper therein, then in the nearest electoral district in which a newspaper is published. Such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of six weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

72. No Petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any Report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no Motion for the suspension or modification of this Rule shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committee charged with consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this Rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the Petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required as herein mentioned, unless the House shall order to the contrary. Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session, a printed copy of such Bill, a copy of the Petition to be presented to the House, together with copies of the notices published. Such publication to be proved by affidavit or declaration to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House. At the time of depositing the Bill, the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars. If a copy of the Bill, Petition, and notices shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session, or if the Petition has not been presented within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one half of the fees paid shall be returned.

77. Before any Petition, praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a Toll Bridge, is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Rule 76, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts and vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

78. All Private Bills for Acts of Incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference the clauses of the General Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills. Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the General Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Rule shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

82. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in Small Pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¾ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each paper; the numbering of the lines is not to be run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

By Rule 83, a model form of Railway Bill is adopted. A copy of same can be obtained upon application to the Clerk.

All bills to incorporate or amend Bills incorporating railway companies are to be drawn in accordance with the Model Bill.

The provisions contained in any Bill which are not in accord with the Model Bill shall be inserted between brackets.

Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any such Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for the same.

In the case of Bills to Incorporate Companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 72, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

Every Petition for a Bill to incorporate a company shall state the name of the proposed company.

Petition signed by agents or attorneys must be accompanied by the authority of such agent, etc.

Dated October 30th, 1922.

W. H. LANGLEY.

Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

To enter into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company:

(m.) To enter into any arrangements with any Governments or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, or concessions which the Company may think desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions, and, if thought advisable, to dispose of any such arrangements, rights, privileges, or concessions:

(n.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the shares, property, and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(o.) To invest, lend, or otherwise deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(p.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of bonds, debentures, or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to purchase, redeem, or pay off any such securities:

(q.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, and negotiate promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(r.) To sell or dispose of or otherwise deal with the undertaking and property of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(s.) To allot the shares of the Company, credited as fully or partly paid up, as the whole or part of the purchase price for any vessels, shares, rights, docks, dry-docks, ways, easements, lands, or real or personal property purchased by the Company, or for any valuable consideration, as from time to time may be determined by the directors:

(t.) To remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares in the Company's capital or any debentures or debenture stock or other securities of the Company, or for any services rendered in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(u.) To do all or any of the above-mentioned things in any part of the world, either as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise:

(v.) To procure the Company to be licensed or registered in any place or country:

(w.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among its members in specie:

(x.) To do all or any other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them.

And it is hereby declared that the intention is that the objects specified in each paragraph of this clause shall, except where otherwise expressed in such paragraph, be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company.

(n.) To improve, manage, work, develop, turn to account, and deal in and with any property, real or personal, acquired by the Company or in which the Company is interested:

(o.) To sell, lease, convert into money, exchange, barter, grant easements, licences, or other rights over or in any other way realize or dispose of the undertaking, property, assets, and effects of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as may be thought fit, and in particular for shares, stock, or securities of any other company, either fully or partly paid up, and to acquire, hold, and deal with any such shares, stocks, or securities, and to accept payment for any property so sold by instalments:

(p.) To draw, accept, endorse, and negotiate bills of exchange, promissory notes, and other negotiable instruments:

(q.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business (whether manufacturing or otherwise), property, rights, and liabilities of any company or person carrying on or authorized or intending to carry on any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or owing or being entitled to any property which it is considered desirable for this Company to acquire or to acquire an interest in, and to acquire, hold, and deal with the shares, stocks, or securities of any such company:

(r.) To allot, credited as fully or partly paid up, the shares or bonds, debentures and debenture stock of the Company as the whole or part consideration for the purchase of any property acquired by the Company, or for services rendered, or other valuable consideration:

(s.) To buy or otherwise acquire in any way and hold, sell, or deal with or in any stocks, shares, securities, or obligations of any Government, authority, corporation, or company which may be considered capable of being profitably held or dealt in or with by the Company:

(t.) To acquire and hold shares, stock, debentures, debenture stock, bonds, obligations, and securities issued or guaranteed by any company constituted or carrying on business in Canada or in the United States of America, and debentures, debenture stock, bonds, obligations, and securities issued or guaranteed by any Government, public body, or authority (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise), and to acquire any such shares, stocks, debentures, debenture stock, bonds, obligations, or securities by option, original subscription, tender, purchase, exchange, or otherwise, and to subscribe for the same either conditionally or otherwise, and to guarantee the subscription thereof, and to exercise and enforce all rights and powers conferred by or incident to the ownership thereof:

(u.) To procure the registration or legal recognition of the Company in any part of the world:

(v.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and for the purpose of securing or discharging any such money or any other debt, or any contract of indemnity, or other obligation or liability of or binding upon the Company, to mortgage and charge the undertaking and all or any of the real and personal property and assets of the Company, present or future, and all or any of the uncalled capital for the time being of the Company; and to create and issue, at par or at a premium or discount, debentures, mortgage debentures, debenture stock, and other securities, payable to bearer or otherwise, and either permanent or redeemable or repayable, and to secure any obligations or securities of the Company by means of covering or trust deeds or otherwise, and to confer upon any encumbrancer such powers of making and enforcing calls and of exchanging any debentures or debenture stock for shares in the capital of the Company and otherwise as may be thought fit:

(v.) To pay all expenses of and in connection with the incorporation or promotion of this or any other company, and the obtaining the subscription of any shares or securities thereof, and procuring or obtaining settlements and quotations upon the London or foreign, colonial, or provincial stock exchanges of any of such shares or securities:

(x.) To establish or promote or concur in establishing and promoting any other company whose objects shall include the acquisition and taking-over of all or any of the assets and liabilities of the Company, and (or) the carrying-on of any business or operation which the Company is carrying on or engaged in or is authorized to carry on or engage in, or which shall be in any manner calculated to advance, directly or indirectly, the objects or interests of the Company, and to acquire and hold shares, stocks of, and guarantee the payment of any securities or any other obligations of any such company:

(y.) To lend money to such parties and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers of and persons having dealings with the Company, and to guarantee or be liable for the contracts or obligations of any such person or persons, firm or corporation, or for the payment of money or for the performance of any obligation:

(z.) To amalgamate with any other company, whether by sale or purchase (for shares or otherwise) of the undertaking or any part thereof, subject or not to the liabilities of this or any such other company, with or without winding-up, or by sale or purchase (for shares or otherwise) of all the shares, stock, debentures, or other securities of this or any such other company or in any other manner; and to enter into partnership, or any arrangement in the nature of partnership, or any joint-purse or profit-sharing arrangement or joint adventure with any company or person:

(aa.) To take all necessary and proper steps in any Parliament, or with any foreign, colonial, provincial, or other Government, or with any authority (local, municipal, or otherwise) in any part of the world, for enabling the Company to give effect to these presents, or to carry any of the Company's objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose, and to oppose the granting of any Act, Bill, or provincial order, or concession to others, and to apply for, procure, or obtain any powers, privileges, rights, or concessions for this Company or for any other company or persons:

(bb.) To give pensions, gratuities, donations, and emoluments to any person at any time in the employment of the Company or engaged in any business acquired by the Company, and the wives, widows, families, and dependents of any such persons, and to found, support, or subscribe to any schools, hospitals, dispensaries, dining-rooms, baths, and places of recreation, and any national, educational, scientific, literary, religious, or charitable institutions or objects, and any trade societies (whether such societies be solely connected with any trade or trades carried on by the Company or not), and any other establishment which may be considered to be in any way calculated to advance the interests of the Company or of the persons employed by the Company, and to subscribe towards or guarantee the expenses of or otherwise take part in the promotion of any exhibition, and to make grants or gifts of land for any of such purposes:

(cc.) To distribute among the members or any class of members in specie any property of the Company, but so that no distribution amounting to a reduction of capital be made except with the sanction (if any) for the time being required by law:

(dd.) To do all or any of the things aforesaid through subsidiary companies, and promote any company having objects in whole or in part similar to those of this Company, or whose objects shall include the acquisition of any of the assets or liabilities of this Company, or the promotion of which shall be thought calculated to advance, directly or indirectly, the objects of this Company or the interest of its shareholders, and to acquire, hold, and deal in the shares, stocks, or securities of any such company:

(ee.) To do all or any of the matters aforesaid in any part of the world, and either as principals or agents for others, and either in the name of the Company or of any person or company as trustee or agent of the Company, and either alone or in concurrence with any person, company, Government, or other body or authority:

(ff.) To do all such other things as are, in the opinion of the directors, incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, and so that the word "company" throughout this clause shall be deemed to include any Government, body, authority, partnership, association, or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not, and whether registered or domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere.

The objects set forth in any subclause of this clause shall not, except when the context expressly so requires, be in anywise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other subclause or by the name of the Company. None of such subclauses or the objects therein specified or the powers thereby conferred shall be deemed subsidiary or auxiliary merely to the objects mentioned in the first subclause of this clause, but the Company shall have full power to exercise all or any of the powers conferred by any part of this clause in any part of the world, and notwithstanding that the business, undertaking, property, or acts proposed to be transacted, acquired, dealt with, or performed do not fall within the objects of the first subclause of this clause.

To establish or promote or concur in establishing and promoting any other company whose objects shall include the acquisition and taking-over of all or any part of the assets and liabilities of or the carrying-on of any business or operation which the Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or shall be in any manner calculated to advance, directly or indirectly, the objects or interests of the Company, and to acquire and hold shares, stocks, or securities of any such company, or to assist any such company by paying or contributing towards the preliminary expenses, or providing the whole or any part of the capital, or procuring subscriptions for the whole or any part of the capital or the shares or securities of any such company:

(r.) To make donations and subscriptions to any object likely to promote the interests of the Company; contribute to any superannuation or other fund or sick or benefit club or society connected with the Company; grant bonuses, gratuities, and pensions to persons employed by the Company, or to the widows or children of such persons and others dependent upon them, and endow, support, and subscribe to any educational, social, or charitable institution or society calculated to be beneficial to such persons; and to subscribe or guarantee money for charitable or benevolent objects, or for any exhibition, or for any public, general, or useful object:

(s.) To give any servants or employees of the Company any share or interest in the profits of the Company's business or any branch thereof, and for that purpose to enter into any profit-sharing scheme or make any arrangements the Company may think fit:

(t.) To procure any servants or employees of the Company to be insured against risk or accident in the course of their employment by the Company, and to effect insurances for the purpose of indemnifying the Company against claims by reason of any such risk or accident, or against liability to pay compensation for injuries happening to or sustained by any of the employees of the Company, and to pay the premiums and other moneys required to keep up such insurances:

(u.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie:

(v.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any company or person, whether an officer of the Company or not, for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or in guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares of the Company's capital or any debentures or debenture stock or other securities in the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business, or in the payment of commissions in respect of the carrying-out of any of the objects of the Company:

(w.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, either as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through agents or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others; to establish offices for the carrying-on of the business of the Company in any part of the world:

(x.) To do all acts and things necessary to procure the Company to be registered or recognized in any part of the world:

(y.) To carry on any other business or to do all such other things as are, or the Company may think are, incidental or conducive to the attainment of all or any of the above objects, or which may be conveniently carried on or done in connection therewith, or may be calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of, or to facilitate the realization of, or to render profitable any of the Company's business, rights, or property.

And it is hereby declared that the word "company" in this clause shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not incorporated, and whether domiciled in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere; and that the intention is that the objects specified in each paragraph of this clause shall, except where otherwise expressed in such paragraph, be in nowise restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company. 325 de31

(j.) To apply for, secure, acquire by assignment, transfer, purchase, or otherwise, and to exercise, carry out, and enjoy, any charter, licence, power, authority, franchise, concession, rights, or privileges which any governmental or other public authority may be empowered to grant, and to pay for, aid in, and contribute towards carrying the same into effect, and to appropriate any of the Company's shares, bonds, and assets to defray the necessary costs, charges, and expenses thereof:

(k.) To acquire the goodwill, property, rights, and assets and to assume the liabilities of any person, firm, or corporation indebted to the Company or transacting any business similar to that transacted by the Company, and to pay for the same in cash or in fully or partly paid-up shares of the Company, or in such other manner as the Company may determine:

(l.) To loan moneys to customers and others having dealings with the Company and to such other persons and on such terms as may seem expedient, and to guarantee the performance of any contract or engagement by any person, partnership, company, or corporation and to pledge the assets of the Company as security for the performance of any such contract or engagement:

(m.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warehouse receipts, warrants, and other negotiable or transferable instruments; to raise or borrow or secure payment of money in such manner as the Company may think fit, and in particular by mortgage, bonds, or debentures charged upon all or any of the Company's property or rights, both present and future, including uncalled capital:

(n.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required in such manner and in such securities as may from time to time be determined by the directors; to purchase or otherwise acquire and to hold shares, stock, and debentures in any other company or companies:

(o.) To amalgamate with or enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing of profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being transacted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company, or to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company or person, and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(p.) To issue either fully paid-up or partly paid-up stock, shares, bonds, or debentures of the Company to any person, firm, or corporation for any property or rights acquired by the Company, and to remunerate, either in cash or in stock, shares, bonds, or debentures as aforesaid, any person, firm, or company for services rendered or to be rendered to the Company in connection with its incorporation, promotion, or organization, or in connection with the Company's business:

(q.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(r.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all or any of the expenses of or incidental to the formation and organization thereof:

(s.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any part of the property and liabilities of the Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit the Company:

(t.) To adopt such means of making known the business or products of the Company as may from time to time be deemed expedient:

(u.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking and assets of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, bonds or debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of the Company:

(v.) To distribute in specie or kind from time to time among the shareholders of the Company any property, assets, or rights of the Company, and in particular any shares, debentures, or securities of any other company belonging to this Company or which this Company may have power to dispose of:

(w.) To remunerate officers and employees of the Company and others out of and in proportion to the returns or profits of the Company or otherwise as the directors may think fit:

(x.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or to and for the benefit and advantage of the Company:

(y.) To do all and any of the above things in any part of the world either as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others; to procure the Company to be registered or licensed to do business in any foreign country:

(z.) The objects set forth in any subclause of this clause shall not, except when the context expressly so requires, be in anywise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other subclause or by the name of the Company. None of such subclauses or the objects therein specified or the powers thereby conferred shall be deemed subsidiary or auxiliary merely to the objects mentioned in the first subclause of this clause, but the Company shall have full power to exercise all or any of the powers conferred by any part of this clause in any part of the world, and notwithstanding that the business, undertaking, property, or acts proposed to be transacted, acquired, dealt with, or performed do not fall within the objects of the first subclause of this clause.

(j.) To develop the resources of and turn to account any lands and any rights over or connected with timber or other lands belonging to or in which the Company is interested, and in particular by laying out townsites, and to construct, maintain, and alter roads, streets, houses, factories, warehouses, shops, buildings, works, and stores, and to contribute to the cost of making, providing, and carrying out and working the same, and by preparing the same for building, letting on building lease or agreement, advancing money to or entering into contracts with builders, tenants, and others, clearing, draining, fencing, planting, cultivating, building, improving, farming, and irrigating:

(k.) To enter into partnership or any arrangement for sharing profits or co-operation or to amalgamate with any person or company carrying on or engaged in any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company or any person or company with whom the Company has or intends to have any business dealings, and to take, purchase, or otherwise acquire and hold, sell, or otherwise dispose of, with or without guarantee, the shares and securities of any company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on or engage in any business or transaction as aforesaid:

(l.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the property, liabilities, and undertaking of any person or company carrying on or entitled to carry on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which can be carried on so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company:

(m.) To sell, exchange, lease, mortgage, or otherwise deal with lands, rights, or other property or effects of the Company or any part thereof, of any kind or nature whatsoever, or the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof, either to individual persons or companies, with power to accept shares or debentures in other companies, and (in the case of shares) either wholly or partly paid up, as consideration for the above, and to hold, sell, or otherwise dispose of such debentures and shares as may be deemed most expedient, and to guarantee the repayment thereof or the payment of interest thereon; to promote or assist in promoting any company or companies for the purpose of taking over, acquiring, or working any property and liabilities of the Company, or for any other purposes which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit the Company, and either in the Dominion of Canada or elsewhere:

(n.) To enter into any arrangement with any authorities (Dominion, Provincial, municipal, local, or otherwise) as may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such authorities any charters, rights, licences, franchises, privileges, and concessions which the Company may deem advisable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, licences, franchises, privileges, or concessions, and, if deemed advisable, dispose of any such arrangements, charters, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(o.) To apply for any Acts, Orders in Council, certificates, licences, or any other powers or authorities which the Company may consider desirable for carrying out its objects or otherwise in the interests of the Company, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which to the Company may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to interfere with or prejudice its interests:

(p.) To borrow, raise or secure money (with or without powers of sale or other special conditions) by a charge on or deposit of any part of the Company's property of any kind soever; to draw, make, accept, endorse, issue, execute, and discount promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, and other negotiable instruments; and to borrow or raise money on or by bonds, debentures, and (or) debenture stock (charged upon all or any part of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital), or acceptances, endorsements, or promissory notes of the Company, and other negotiable instruments:

(g.) To register or licence the Company in any other part of the British Empire or elsewhere where the Company desires to carry on business:

(r.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, promotion, registration, and advertising of the Company:

(s.) To do all or any of the things above set out in British Columbia and elsewhere as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(t.) To do all such things and to carry on such businesses as the Company may think are incidental and conducive to the attainment of the above objects.

(p.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required for the Company's business in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(q.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions, and the like, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use or any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and to use, exercise, develop, or grant licences in respect of or otherwise turn to account the property, patents, licences, rights, or information so acquired, and to expend money in experimenting upon and testing and improving or seeking to improve any such inventions, patents, or rights:

(r.) To borrow or raise money for any purposes of the Company, and for the purposes of securing the same and interest, and for any other purpose, to draw, make, accept, execute, endorse, discount, issue, and negotiate bills of exchange, promissory notes, debentures, and other negotiable instruments, and in particular to mortgage or charge the undertaking or all or any part of the property of the Company, at present or hereafter acquired, or its uncalled capital; and to grant, execute, seal, and deliver mortgages, bonds, and bills of sale, and to create, issue, make, and negotiate perpetual or redeemable debentures or debenture stock, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, obligations, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(s.) To lend money to such persons and bodies, whether upon security or otherwise, and upon such terms as the Company shall think fit:

(t.) To sell, lease, let on hire, exchange, or otherwise dispose of, absolutely, conditionally, or for any limited interest, the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof or any of its property or assets for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities (either wholly or partly paid up) of any other company (having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company), either by a fixed payment or by payment conditional upon or varying with gross earnings, profits, or other contingencies:

(u.) To enter into any arrangements with any Government or authority (provincial, municipal, local, or otherwise), and to obtain from any such Government or authority any subsidies, rights, privileges, and concessions that may be thought desirable or may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to expend moneys with a view to obtaining any such rights, privileges, or concessions:

(v.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person, firm, association, or company possessed of property or rights suitable for the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and as the consideration for the same to pay cash, or to issue and allot shares of the Company, credited as fully or partly paid up, or stock or debentures or other obligations of the Company, or to pay for the same partly in one way and partly in the other:

(w.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventures, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company, and to lend money to or otherwise assist any such person or company:

(x.) To purchase, take, or otherwise acquire and hold shares and securities in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(y.) To establish or promote or concur in establishing and promoting any other company whose objects shall include the acquisition and taking-over of all or any part of the assets and liabilities of or the carrying on of any business or operation which the Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or shall be in any manner calculated to advance, directly or indirectly, the objects or interests of the Company, and to acquire and hold shares, stocks, or securities of any such company, or to assist any such company by paying or contributing towards the preliminary expenses, or providing the whole or any part of the capital, or procuring subscriptions for the whole or any part of the capital or the shares or securities of any such company:

(z.) To make donations and subscriptions to any object likely to promote the interests of the Company; contribute to any superannuation or other fund or sick or benefit club or society connected with the Company; grant bonuses, gratuities, and pensions to persons employed by the Company, or to the widows or children of such persons, and others dependent upon them, and endow, support, and subscribe to any educational, social, or charitable institution or society calculated to be beneficial to such persons; and to subscribe or guarantee money for charitable or benevolent objects, or for any exhibition, or for any public, general, or useful object:

(aa.) To give any servant or employee of the Company any share or interest in the profits of the Company's business or any branch thereof, and for that purpose to enter into any profit-sharing scheme or make any arrangements the Company may think fit:

(bb.) To procure any servants or employees of the Company to be insured against risk or accident in the course of their employment by the Company, and to effect insurance for the purpose of indemnity lying the Company against claims by reason of any such risk or accident, or against liability to pay compensation for injuries happening to or sustained by any of the employees of the Company, and to pay the premiums and other moneys required to keep up such insurances:

(cc.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie:

(dd.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any company or person, whether an officer of the Company or not, for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or in guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares of the Company's capital or any debentures or debenture stock or other securities in the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business, or in the payment of commissions in respect of the carrying-out of any of the objects of the Company:

(ee.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, either as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through agents or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others; to establish offices for the carrying-on of the business of the Company in any part of the world:

(ff.) To do all acts and things necessary to procure the Company to be registered or recognized in any part of the world:

(gg.) To carry on any other business or to do all such other things as are or the Company may think are incidental or conducive to the attainment of all or any of the above objects, or which may be conveniently carried on or done in connection therewith, or may be calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or to facilitate the realization of, or to render profitable any of the Company's business, rights, or property.

And it is hereby declared that the word "company" in this clause shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not incorporated, and whether domiciled in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere; and that the intention is that the objects specified in each paragraph of this clause shall, except where otherwise expressed in each paragraph, be in nowise restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company.
